OFFICE ORDER

Shri KPS Nirwal, Asstt. Registrar was not feeling well since the last one week. Upon being tested for Covid-19 yesterday, his report has come out positive in the Rapid Antigen Detection Test. He has not attended office after that day. However, on 05.10.2020, several staff have come in contact with him in the course of work. Some of them have also developed symptoms.

Hence, it has been decided that the RCT office premises should be got disinfected and properly sanitized so as to contain the spread of the virus. For this purpose, the RCT office at Principal Bench will need to remain closed for 2 days. During these two days, on 12th and 13th October, 2020, RCT Court sittings shall not be held and the cases shall stand adjourned to 15th and 16th December, 2020 respectively. All staff are directed to work from home and remain available through phone/Whatsapp for official work.

Those who came in contact with Shri Nirwal are directed to keep themselves quarantined at home for 7 days starting from 12.10.2020 and perform their official duties from home. They are advised to keep a strict watch on their health and get themselves tested if they develop any symptoms and also inform the office in case of being found Covid-19 positive.

Any failure on this account will be viewed seriously. The names of the staff, who shall remain quarantined at home are as under: -

- 10) Shri R.C Pal
- 11) Smt Anita Suri
- 12) Smt Anju Rani
- 13) Shri Vinod Kumar Singh
- 14) Miss Kavita
- 15) Miss Sunita Sati
- 16) Miss Geetanjali
- 17) Shri Soban Singh
- 18) Shri Ram Prakash

The remaining staff shall continue attending office as per Roster from Wednesday 14th October, 2020 onwards.

(Akshay V. Bhardwaj)
Addl. Registrar
